Reicher Celebrates Twentieth Anniversary

This year, nineteen hundred seventy-three marks the twentieth anniversary of the opening of Reicher Catholic High School. Ted Weems and his orchestra played at the "Heartaches Dance" of which the proceeds went to the J. J. Kearns Trust Fund. This year's Chi-Rhoan staff also commemorates this event by dedicating the nineteen hundred seventy-three yearbook to all the teachers and coaches who served during these twenty years. One hundred thirty-eight teachers have made contributions to the success of the students and the growth of the school during this time. Each of these hard-working people have added another gold brick to the foundation of Reicher High School.

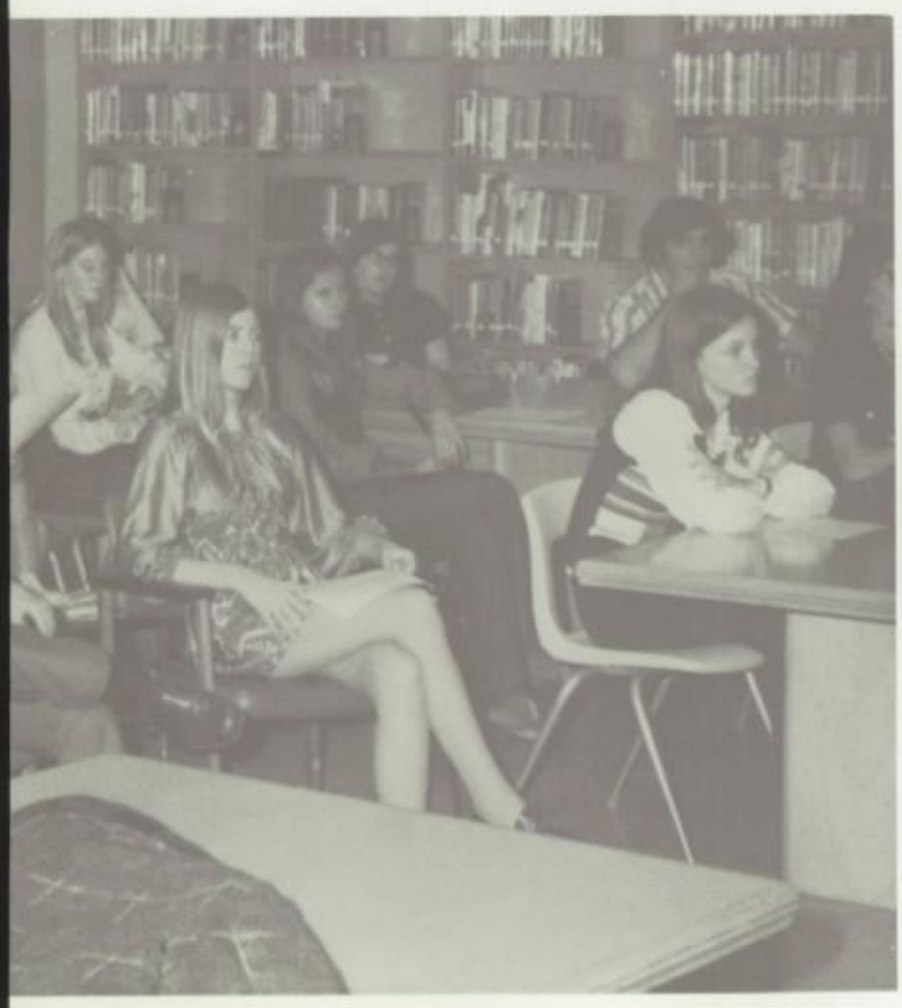
We Are Yahweh's People

During Religion III, Juniors are busy discussing the Bible? . . . "Jerry, you should be ashamed!" . . . "Because I don't look good in red."

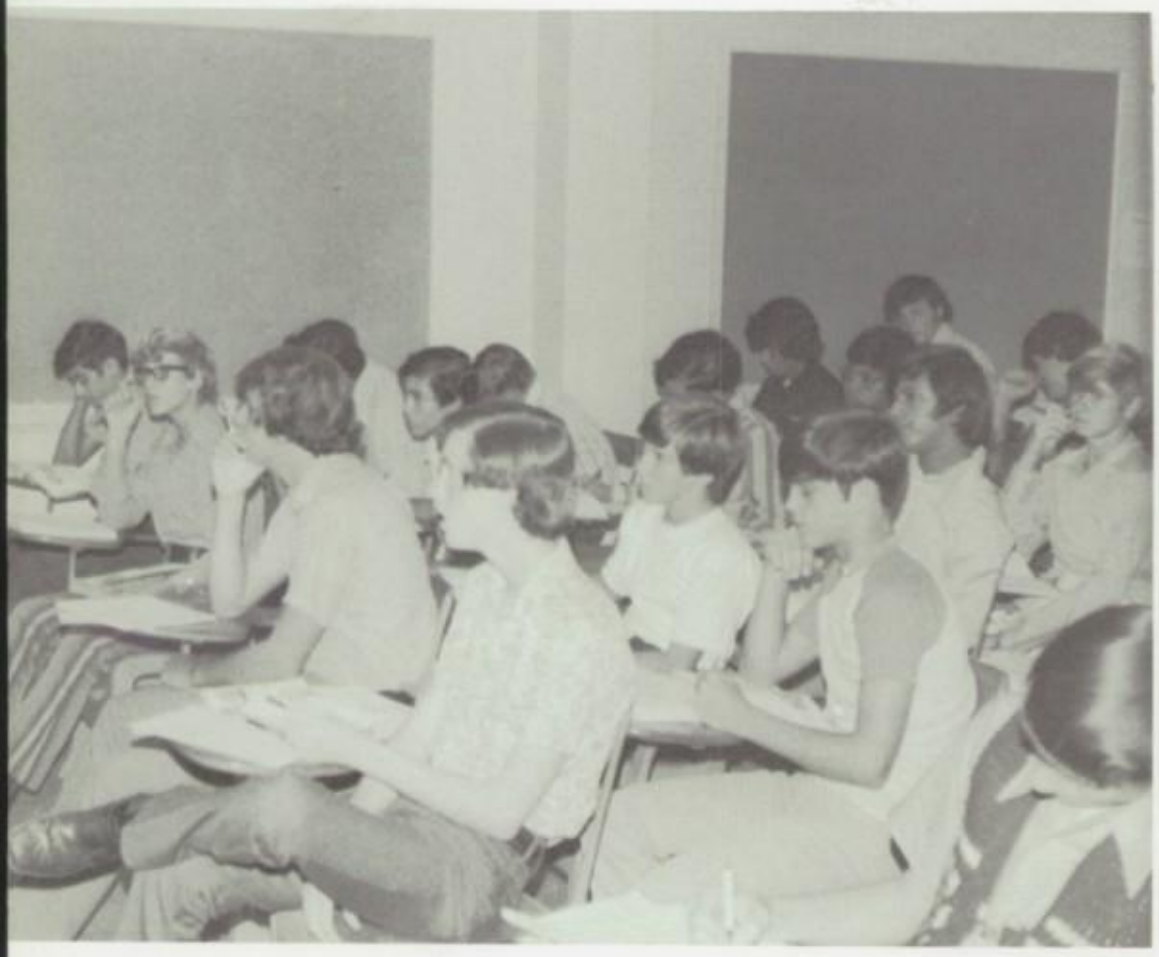
Freshmen Prayer Service for Peace, December, 1972 . . . Freshmen learn about Candy Cain and Honest Abel.



Around the World in 186 Days

And to think I thought Charlie Brown was a girl . . . There's no place like home . . . What me—worry?

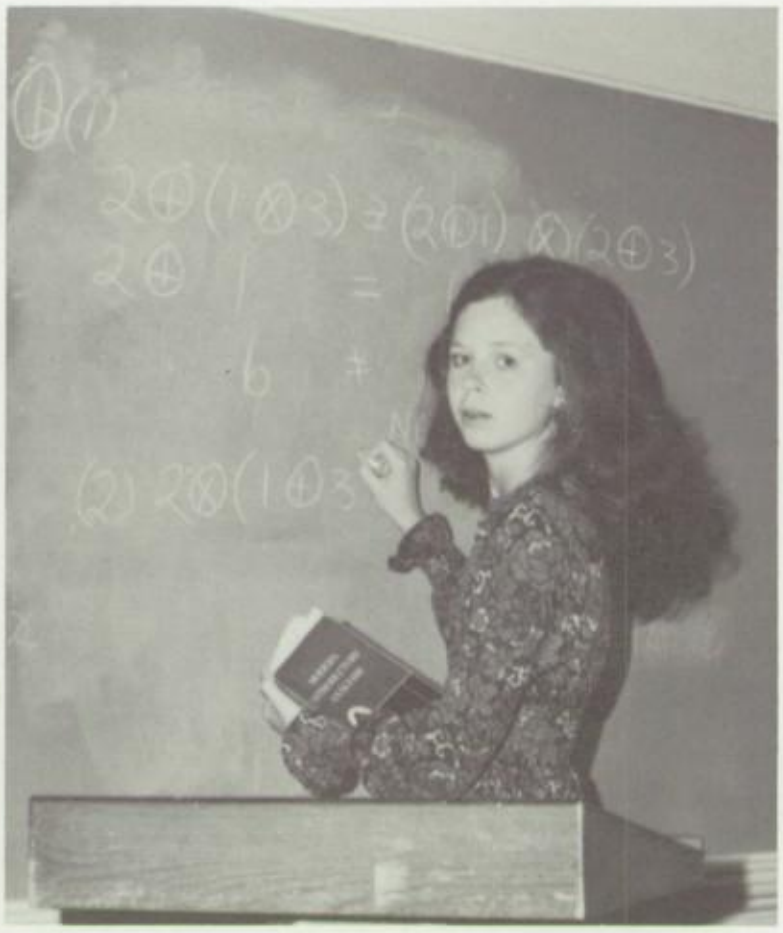
First you take a right on Lake Shore Drive, go to the stop sign, then . . . Once upon a time . . . Government class hard at work.



I Think I Can Figure This Thing Out By Algebra

They never taught me this in McCall's magazine . . . Peacocks of a feather flock together . . . As Peggy explains: "You see you take the square hypotenuse of a negative triangle, divide it by the pie that Richard ate half of.

It seems that the Elementary Algebra kids are always "Flooded" with homework.

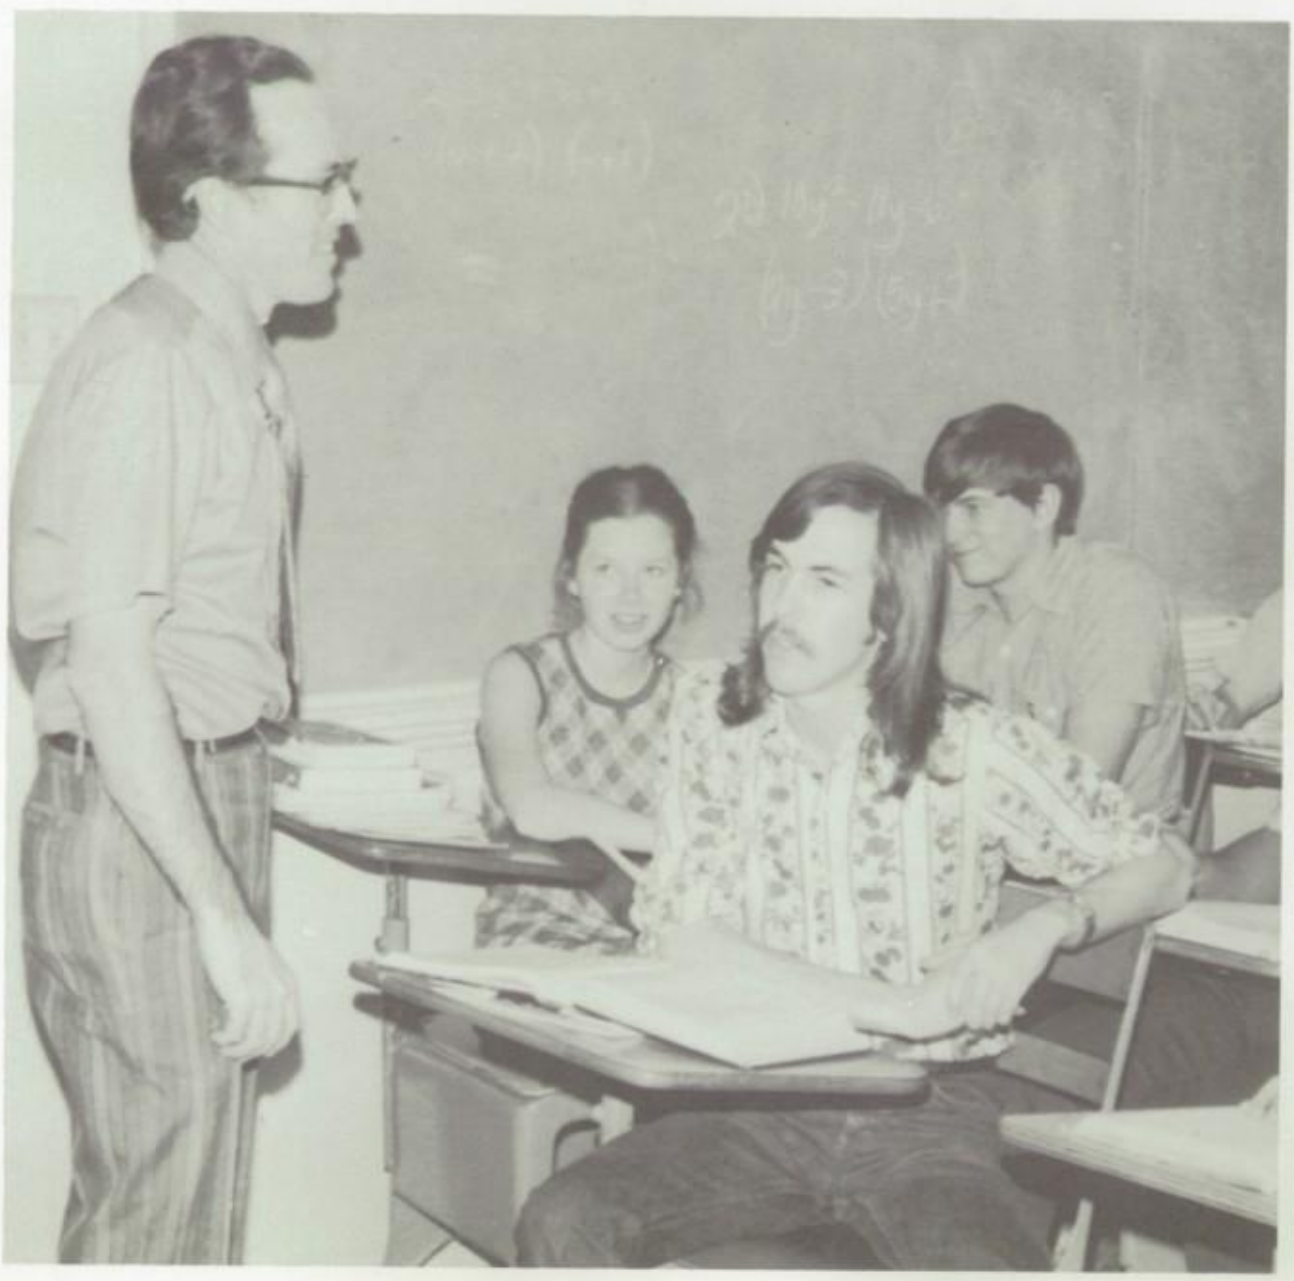


We All Enjoy a Play

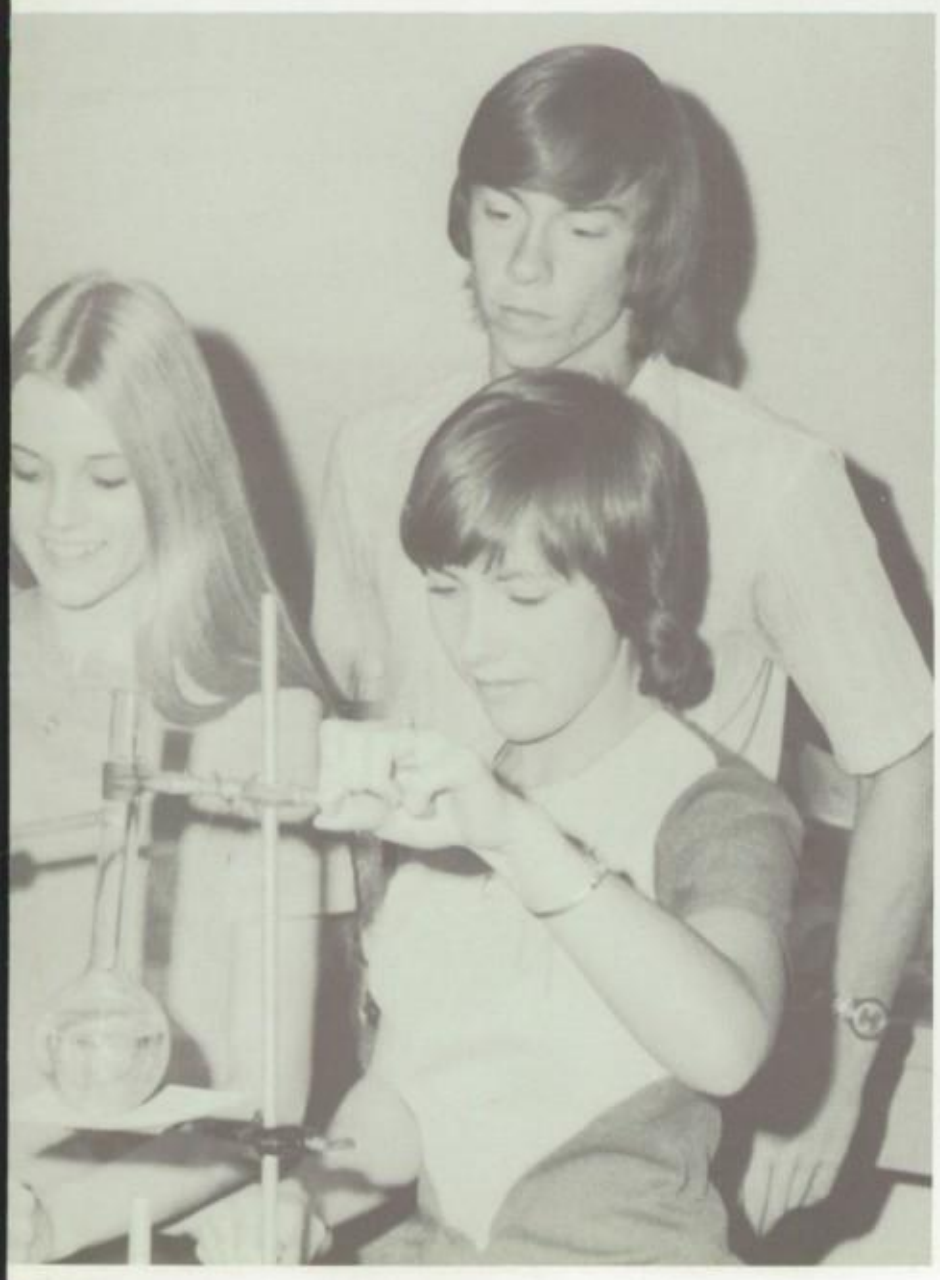
on Words Now and Then

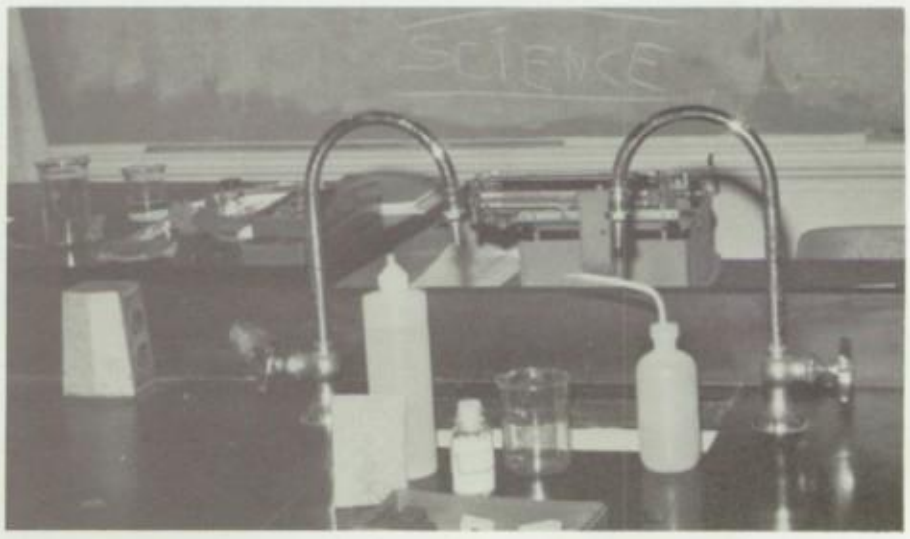
I wonder how you work these darn pencils anyway? . . . "Sister I think someone scratched the record." "Record! That's a tape of me reading." . . .

Know what a hangover is? The wrath of grapes . . . If you're that cold, Mrs. Urech, we can always burn the desks . . . Many students participated in Speech Meets. Susan Bigham and Anne Bouchard received the rank of excellence in the Richfield Speech Tournament. Not pictured is Rose Grossenbacher who attained the rank of Superior. Marilyn Peevey, senior, placed second in the Veterans of Foreign Wars' "Voice of Democracy" Speech Contest.



A Way of Learning, A Way of Life





"Hey look, Zucha, that giant amoeba is eating Mrs. Ziegler." . . . Tacky, tacky, tacky . . . It's Cookie Day in Earth Science class.

Simcik's theorem of equality: "2 + 2 = 22: reason—Haley's Comet." . . . "This one should make a big boom!"

Today Reicher, Tomorrow The Business World

A Reicher rarity—a typewriter without covered keys . . . Future secretaries of America (?) undergo vigorous training . . . "R.B. you don't need to add 5 and 9 on an adding machine!"

So I do look at the typewriter once in a while—nobody's perfect . . . Gary says, "I might as well be blind. Who needs eyes with covered typewriter keys?" . . . Paul Graser turns General Business into monkey business.

Weekly Magazines and Slides of Rome Enhance

"Now class, you must pay attention to learn—class!" . . . Who's the monkey at the door? . . . Advanced Spanish class is tickled to learn from Sister Theresa Maria that Columbus did not land at Plymouth Rock.

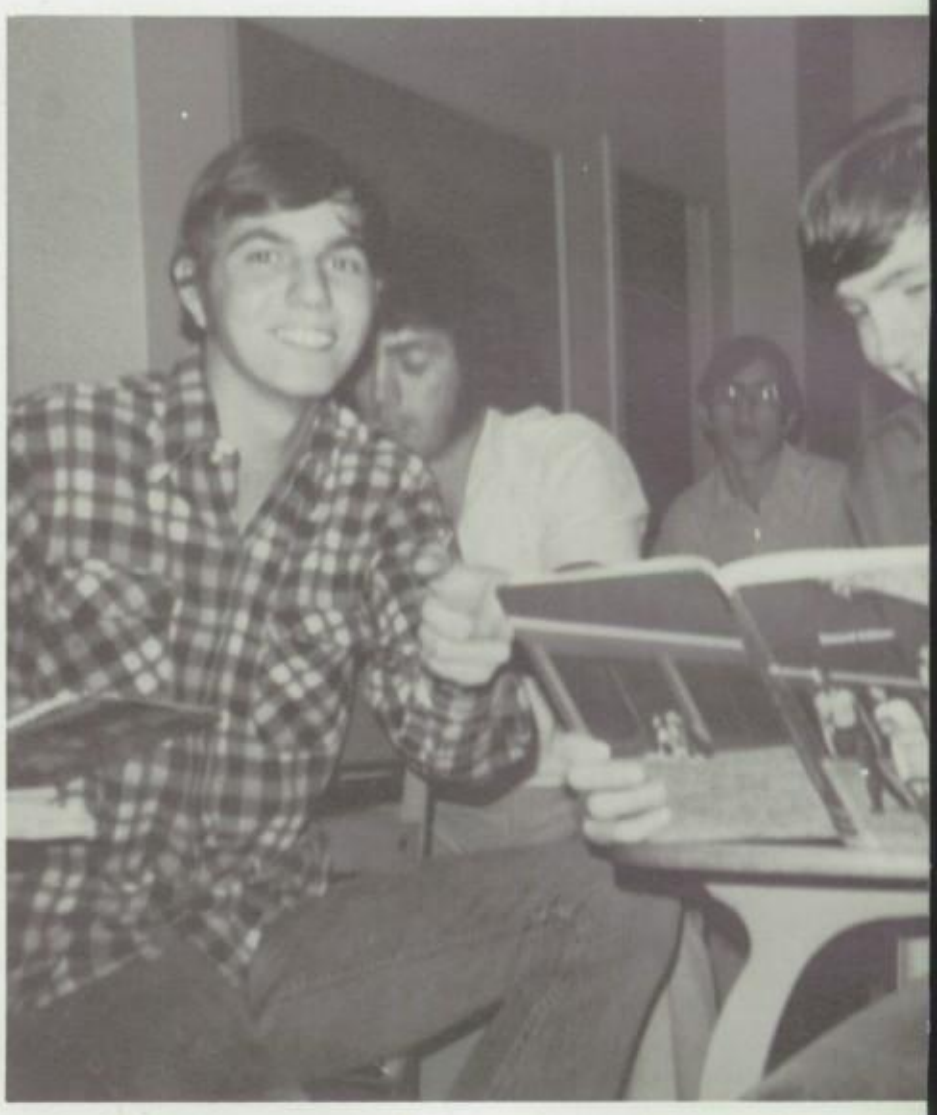
Tonsilitis Omnibus . . . Adelante features a classic tear-jerking story this week—Historia de Amar.

Grammar of Foreign Languages.

Mrs. Cook, Sister Mary Helen Prepare Students for Future Living

Many speakers enriched the Family Living classes with topics such as teen-age marriages, drugs, and self-actualization . . . "Patty cake, patty cake."

"Darn these platinum-plus needles" . . . "Boy, Dave, take a look at November!" . . . Here you find Sister Mary Helen anxiously making her prom dress.



Art Creations Burst Into Bloom

Sister always told us, "Wash out your paintbrushes, use lots of color, and don't forget your workshirts." But Daddy, Sister never told us about . . . Gary, Imitation is flattery but Rembrandt didn't start that way . . . These were done by either budding geniuses or blooming idiots . . .

"What would you do if I told you this panel is backwards?" . . ."Just because I messed up dosen't mean you have to laugh, Robert."

P.E. Classes Work Out New Coaches

This dance would have been better if boys were allowed to come . . . The 6th mod PE class is now attempting for a 9th unprecedented broken bulb . . . I thought Charlie was supposed to scrub the gym floor.

No, you're wrong! Coach Flood is at least this tall . . . Steve Gradel is trying for the part of the Statue of Liberty . . . 1 . . . 2 . . . 3 (sigh) 98 . . . 99 . . . 100!

Squeeeeek . . . Ann and Marsha are doing a little sight-reeding . . . And Joe Cool rocks on as he plays his musical fingers.

Mr. Fletcher: "It doesn't sound quite like Chicago yet." . . . Tooters Anonymous.

Student Council Works Hard for Its Students

Officers are James Colunga, President (not pictured); Bob Sheehy, Vice-President; Marilyn Peevey, Secretary; and Mary Calloway, Treasurer.

James Colunga gives a helping hand with the float. During the month of November many Student Council members learned the art of building a Christmas float. The Jay Cees offered $100 for the best float and Reicher was out to win. Although we didn't win first place, we came in a sure second with "A Dutch Dream".

Student Council officers and representatives, with Mrs. Belk as their moderator, sponsored activities which included after-game dances, Homecoming, the Christmas Float, the Faculty Christmas dinner, the Valentine's Dance, and Corrigan Weekend.

DUTCH DREAM

So This Is What High "Society" Is Like

The fourteen inductees are welcomed by NHS members after the induction ceremony . . . Peggy Frank displays both leadership and service as President of the National Honor Society.

This year's winning challenge team, coached by Mrs. Urech, consists of team captain, Peter Blaskiewicz, Peggy Frank, Paul Hill and Bob Groeger . . . Mrs. Urech, NHS moderator; Richard Skopik, Vice-President; Janet Buxkemper, Secretary; and Molly Kallus, Treasurer, discuss plans for activities for the coming year such as The Christmas Party and Teacher Appreciation Day.

The Yearbook Staff keeps the Chi-Rhoan Goin'

The Cougar Chronicle Staff Can Create Sentences

Long hours and hard work are necessary to produce the Cougar Chronicle, whose moderator is Sister Barbara; and the Chi-Rhoan, moderated by Sister Barbara Jean. The yearbook staff "burns the midnight oil" the night before a deadline . . . Want to know what it's like to have a miserable migraine headache? Ask the editors of the school publications—Peter Blaskiewicz, The Cougar Chronicle or Aleene Redder and Molly Kallus, The Chi-Rhoan.

Oochica Ah!—What?

Varsity Cheerleaders for the '72-'73 school year are Dalene Tynes, Debby McCafferty, Regina Gradel, (head cheer leader), Suzie Garon, Barbara Hurtado, and Patty Becker. Leading the cheers for B-Team fans are Mary Alice Gamble, Patty Oswald, Patty McCafferty, Diane Davis, Cyndy Fulbright, and Vickie Gradel. This Cougar is cour-r-r-ageous.

Boys??? . . . I'd give my arm for a spirited pep rally . . . Go, Go, Get'em, Oochica Ah!

Counting With Others Is No Easy Routine.

Feature twirler, Valerie Taggart brightens half time with fire . . . Majorettes, Barbara Fulbright, Vickie Gradel, and Marilyn Moreno were an added attraction to the band this year . . . The Pep Squad did a great job this year under the leadership of Carol Bowen, captain; and Mary Helen Herrera and Sheila Foster, lieutenants . . . Jean Ann Reynolds helped the Pep Squad polish their half time routines.

Cakes, Corsages . . . to Spain and France.

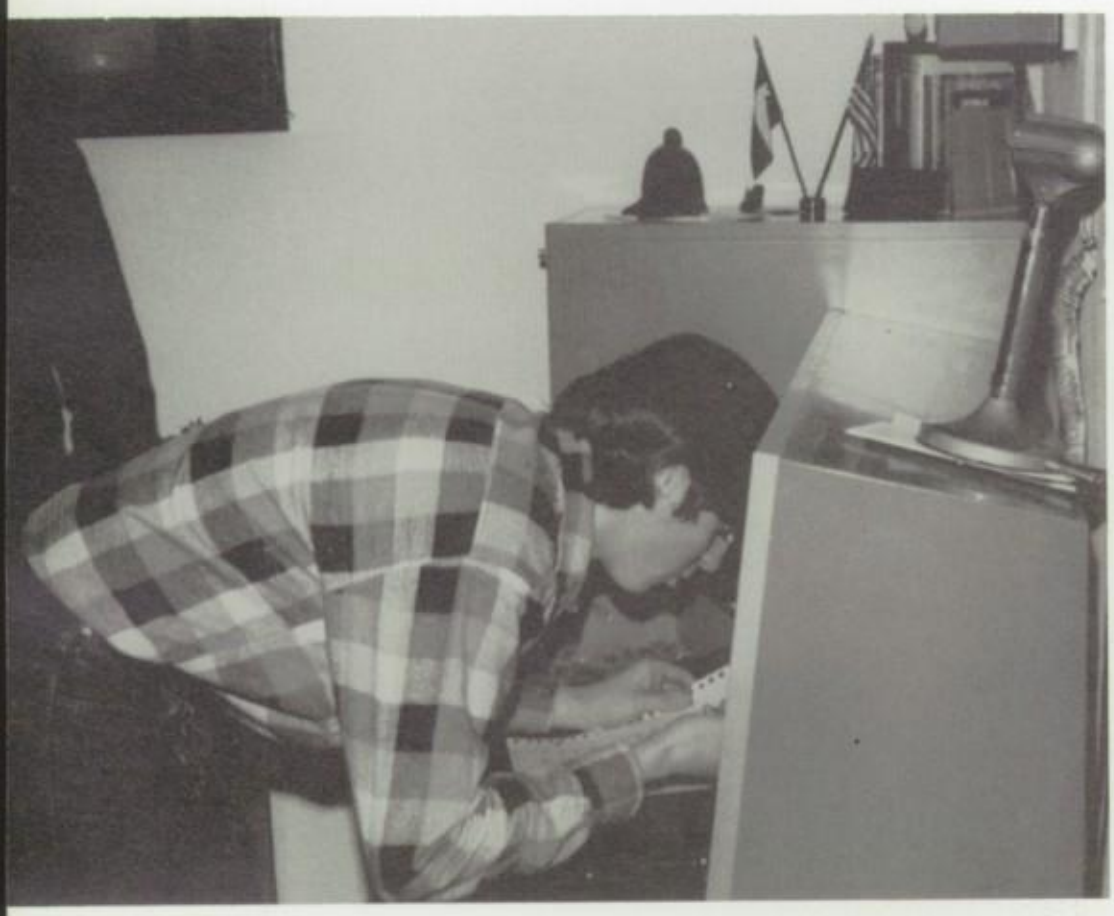
RCA members and their moderator, Sister Mary Helen gather in the Home Ec. room center for some of their many projects, especially the Thanksgiving baskets and year-round distributions for the poor. The RCA gathered every Wednesday at free mod for prayer services prepared by individual members. Other services of Reicher Catholic Action are teaching Bible school at St. Louis Church, visiting poor families and the elderly, taking care of the Reicher chapel, and Christmas caroling. Officers were Marilyn Peevey, president; Regina Gradel, vice-president; Lisa Tomchesson, secretary; and Patty Becker, treasurer.

The officers of the Red Cross were Mary Callaway, vice-president; Mary Lopez, secretary; Mrs. Ziegler, moderator; Sharon Stone, treasurer; and Debbie Kramolis, president. Their activities included working at the VA at Christmas, and sponsoring an Easter-egg hunt for the children of Evangelia Home. Members not shown are: Josephine Richards, Diane Christopherson, Cecilia Jurek, Winnie Henderson, Carole Welsh, and Marcy Lievens.

People Who Help People Are the Luckiest People.

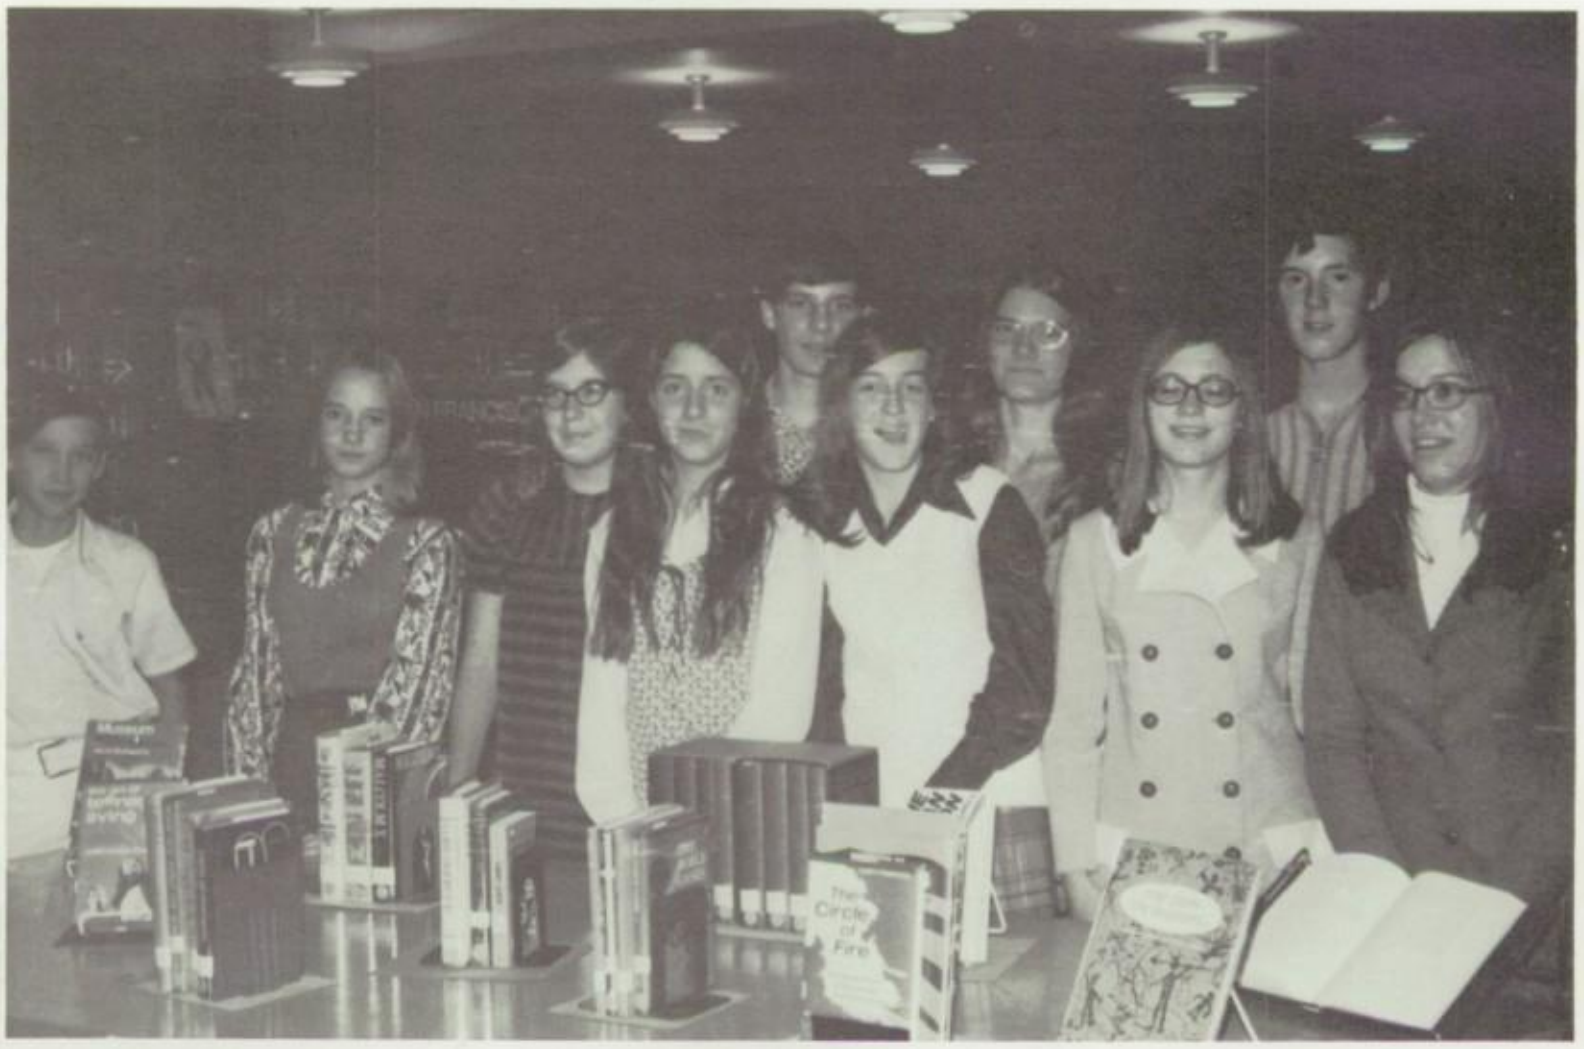
Mission: Possible (With Everyone's Help)



Books Are Their Business—Their Only Business

"Okay guys, it's time for the mission raffle," . . . "Come on, Joe, we've gotta beat homeroom 25 this week." . . . Mission Club representatives count the weekly "offerings".

Library Guild members are a big help to Sister Theresa Maria . . . Library Guild members learn the business of keeping a library in order.



The Glee Club and Band Send Out Season's

The Glee Club gets into the Christmas spirit . . . Parents and friends enjoy the Christmas music provided by the Reicher Band . . .

Janet Buxkemper as Mary and James Colunga as Joseph create the manger scene . . . Jon Lewis finds a friend . . . B.J. does his thing as a king.

Coach Joe Flood—Varsity. Coach Randy Moore—B Team.

Junior Manuel Ordones honored Reicher this year by receiving the Boy's Club Boy of the Year award, and by his selection to the 1972 Super Centex Squad. Paul Graser, also a Junior, was nominated for All-State Football guards position.

Prove Successful

Back at the tennis courts—Dennis Dougherty won his first three matches at the State meet, finally dropping out in the quarter finals. He is currently Waco City Champ.

Paul Gawloski, carrying a 170 bowling average, traveled to Fort Worth in June to represent Reicher.

People on a Football Field are Rough!

Maurice and Paul Graser try a new Coach Flood tactic—going into the other team's huddle . . . M. Rivera and M. Ordones have an interesting confrontation ahead of them.

Maurice waltzes for more yardage . . . Hardy Person goes 25 yards—without the ball . . . Great tackle, Sanchez!—now get the guy with the ball . . . Guess who's winning this game? . . . How to run up the middle: 1. Use strength to penetrate the line. 2. Instruct yourself to avoid tackles. 3. Learn to pray.

New Team + New Coaches + Spirit = Success

3,000 people show up to see Doug balance a real basketball on his NOSE . . . Billy Scott has a few pointers for the Clifton Cubs . . . Billy goes stylin' in for two . . . Things only look up for Gary.

Referee (and sometimes Coach) Randy Moore parades off court after a hard nights work . . . Mike achieving his main goal in life . . . To shoot with accuracy from the outside:

1) take the mass over the initial velocity,
2) subtract $E=MC^2$ from Newton's third law,
3) test for wind factors,
4) hope.

Track Teams Compete In State Competition

The Reicher Girl's Track team proudly poses with their second place trophy form the State Track Meet in San Antonio. Chris Lewis, Marsha Matus, Patty Oswald and Debbie Kallus set a state record for the 440 yard relay but were unfortunately disqualified on a technical error.

Special thanks go to sister Barbara who taught English and Religion at Reicher for four years. She skillfully moderated the Cheerleaders, Pep Squad, Cougar Chronicle, and The Senior Class. The Seniors from '70-'73 will long remember that famous line, "Seniors, the bell has rung!"

Sister Clara Francis and Sister Placide are joyously making out the detention list . . . Sister Evelyn Marie showing off the work of her prize student, Johnnie Gaidusek . . . All the way "Cowboys!"

The Athletic Boosters worked many hours to keep various teams in tip-top shape. A special project for both the Boosters and Band Boosters this year was the Horse Show held in early April under the Waco Horse Show Association. The profit was divided between the two Reicher Clubs. Officers of the 1973 Boosters were: Nick Spanos, Cecil Atkins, Frank DiCorte, Lloyd Fulbirght, John Nystrom.

People Working For Reicher's Success

Under the capable leadership of many hard working men and women, Reicher has shown much improvement during the past year. The Reicher Parent—Teacher Organization has strived hard to increase the spirit of cooperation between parents and teachers. The Band Booster's main project has been supplying the band with new uniforms. The school board has been concerned mainly with policy making at Reicher and has worked hard to provide and appropriate dress code for the coming year. Last but not least, are the many priests who have worked with the students to provide them with counsel and spiritual guidance.

Where would we be without school help? Not a day passes when each and everyone is needed . . . Along with her duties as Father Bob's Secretary, Mrs. Lokken also serves as audio-visual librarian . . . Charlie Rederick, how you doin'?

Mr. Collins wonders where the team went without him . . . See Mrs. Trombley for all the tuition receipts you want . . . Mrs. Narovec, Mrs. Engelke, and Mrs. Stanislav: Wasn't that fried chicken better than the Colonel's?

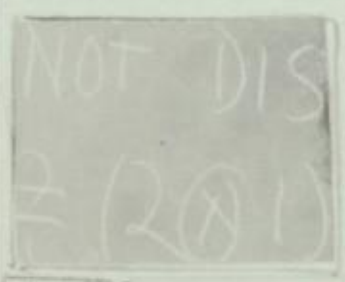
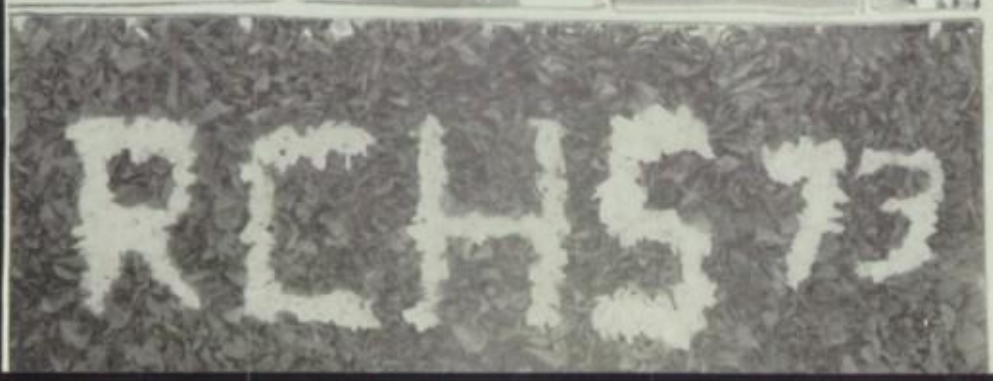
Student Life



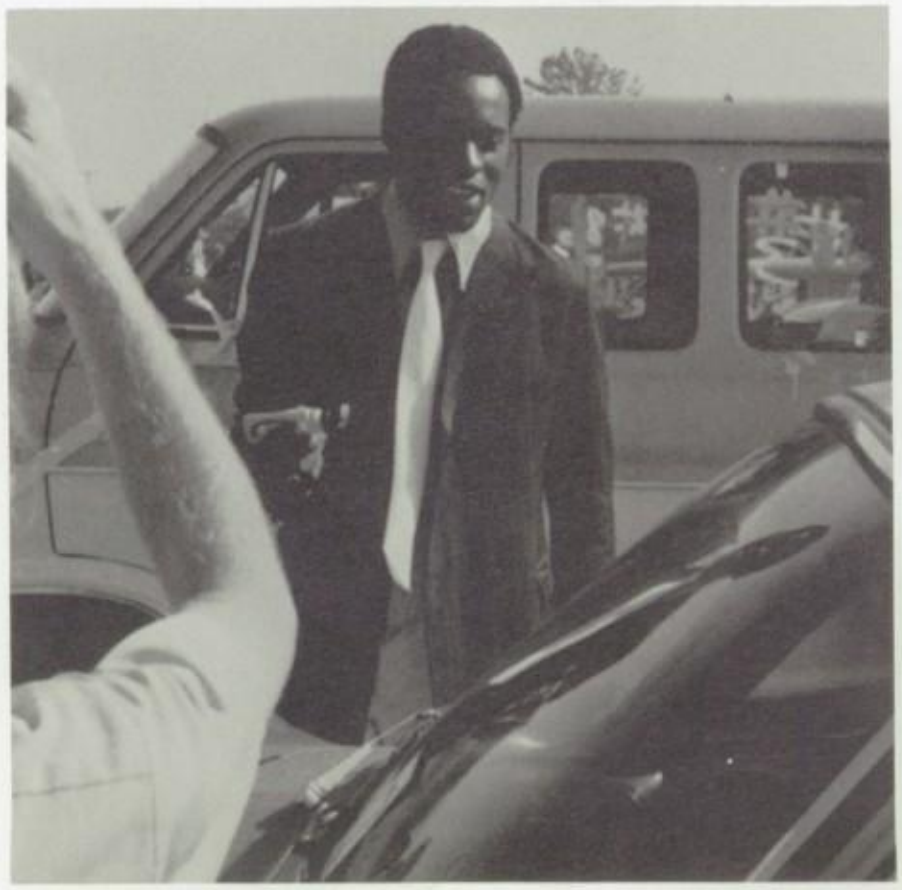


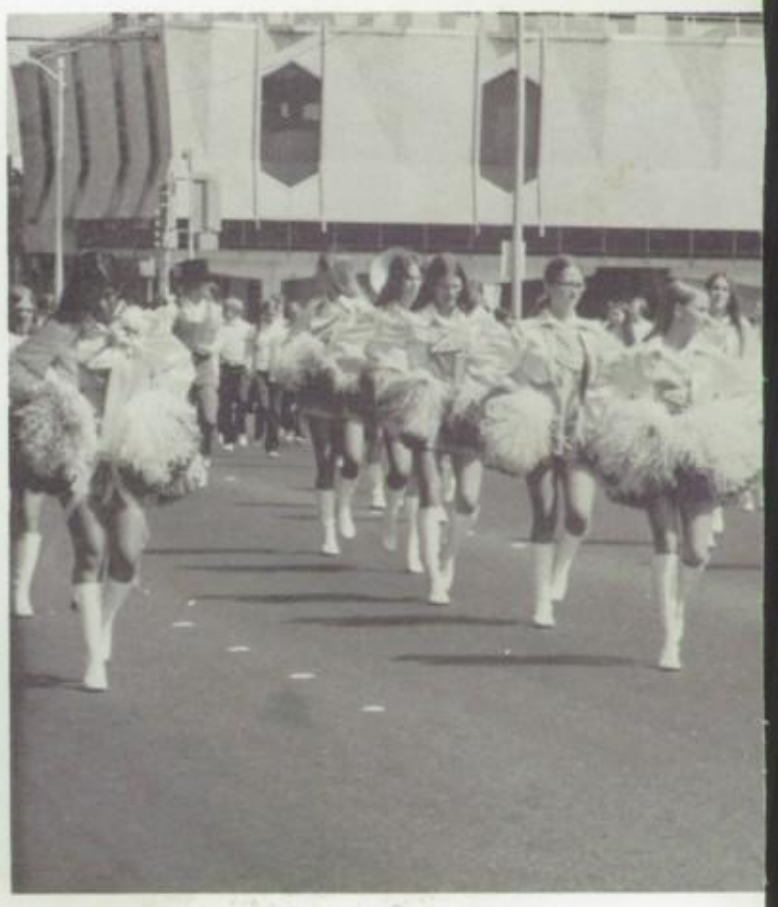
Frivolity Finds Fun, Food, and Friends at the Festival

"All right, who spiked the popcorn?" "What do you mean you'd rather have a customers baton?" "Wait till I get those children in Bookkeeping tomorrow!"
"I think all our customers have been hauled off to jail." "I hope I've got another quarter left to bail myself out!" "Marsha, I told you not to let the boys do it free."

Tiptoe through the Bulldogs . . . Chris you're wanted on the phone. Write on brother! Write on! And the Pep Squad marches on and on and on . . .

Happiness is Homecoming begun with a prayer at the traditional Homecoming Mass.



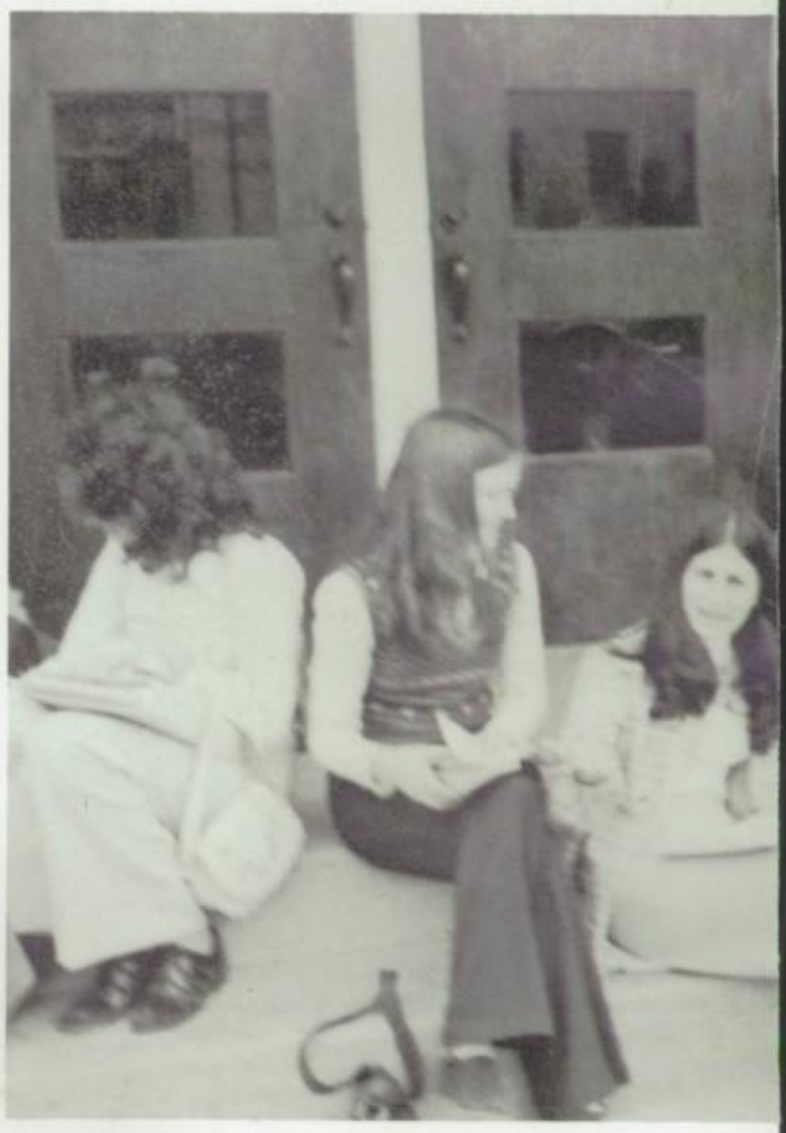


Happiness Is Homecoming.

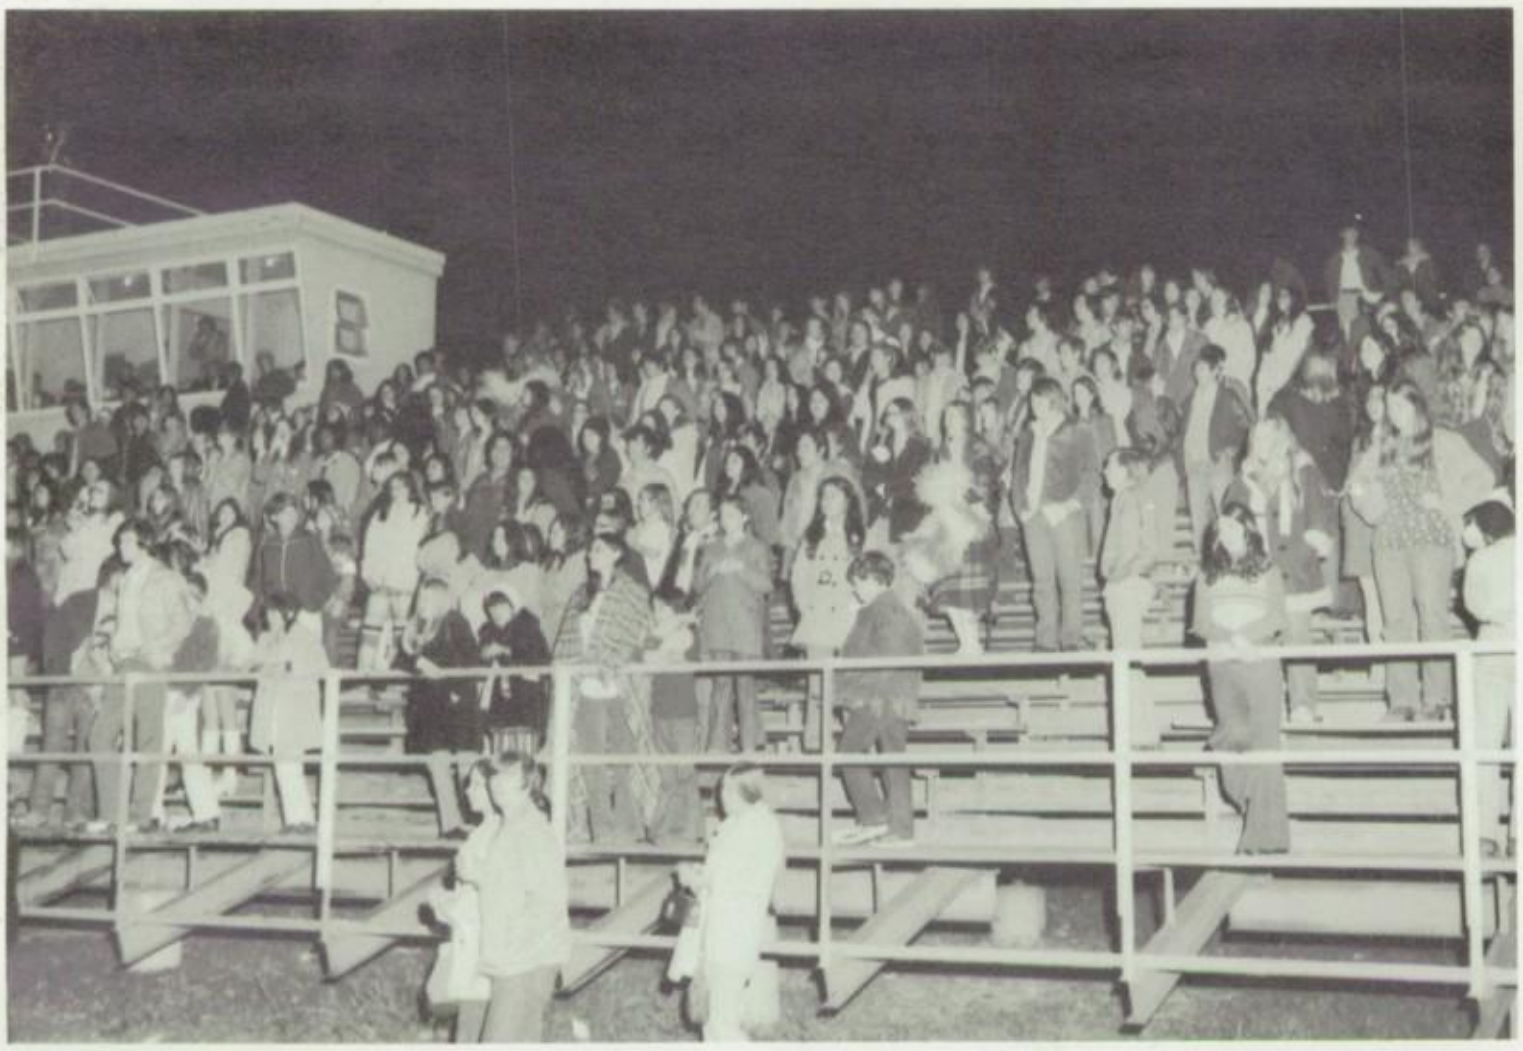
Don't It Make You Wanna Come Home?

A bouquet of roses, a crown, an autographed football—and Regina Gradel, Homecoming Queen.

The Queen and her Court—Nominees are Dalene Tynes, Debbie McCafferty and Darlene Henkelman. Why are they smiling? It's Friday the 13th and it's not raining! Class Attendants are: Sophomore, Lisa Tomchesson; Freshman, Tricia Dvorsky; and Junior, Barbara Hurtado.



People: In and Out of Season

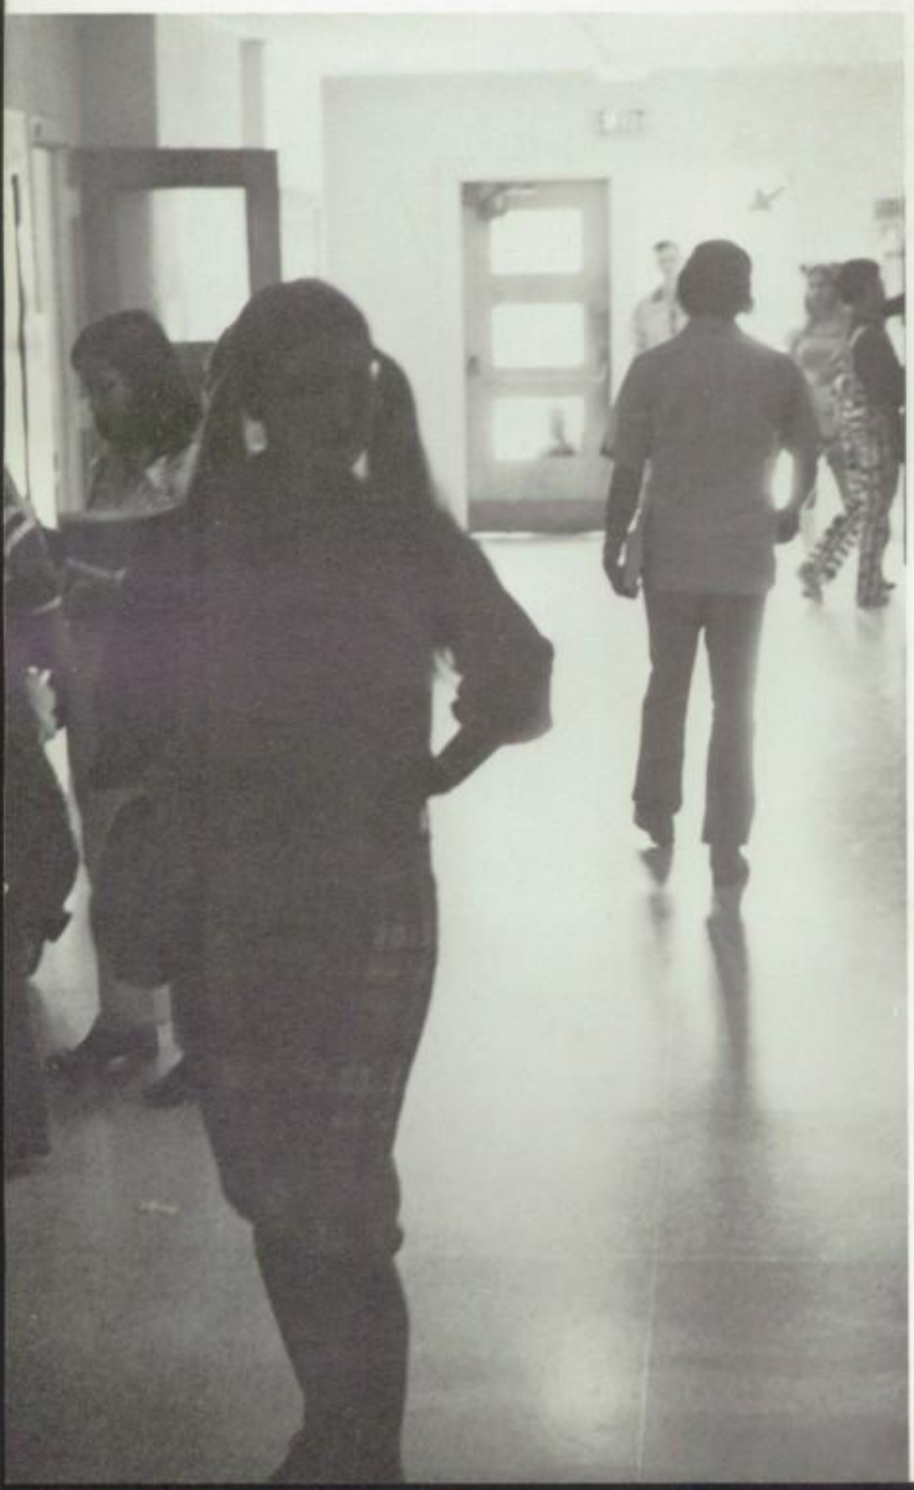


The first snowfall, in mid-December brings deeper Christmas spirit, but no people! . . . The second snowfall, mid-January isolates and chills and time seemed to linger . . . Back in October! The people called Cougar Boosters congregate in the brisk air.

Spring brings about the season of new life as flowers begin to bloom and new love is found . . . As summer approaches and the school year comes to an end, people find studying easier in the warm outdoors.

Friendship . . .

A true friend is a priceless treasure. They are an invaluable part of our everyday life. They are people with whom we can meet, talk, and have fun. This year was no exception to the joyful phenomena of making friends.

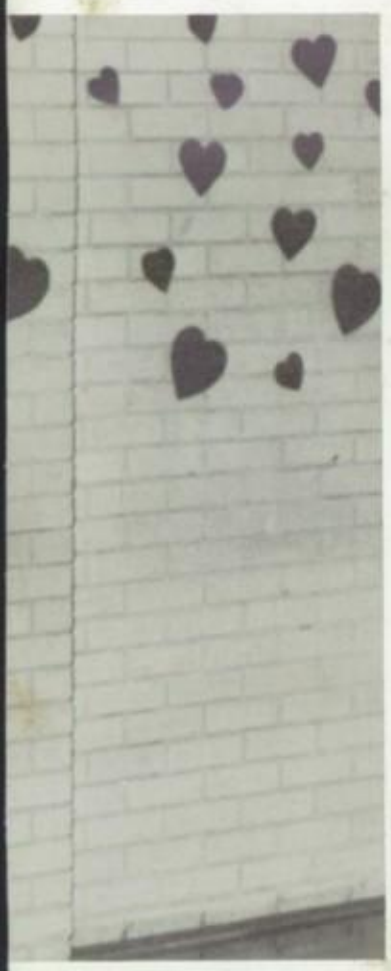


There was an air of expectation on February 9, the night of the Valentine Dance. Who would be crowned Valentine Seeetheart—Susanne Rodriguez, Senior nominee; Kay Gerlich, Junior nominee; Laurie Furgeson, Sophomore; or Missy Woodward, Freshman? . . .

The evening was climaxed by the crowning of Laurie Furgeson as Valentine Sweetheart of 1973.

I believe . . . these are roses . . . Basil B. Bops.

Sweethearts Make Love Their Very Own



Tahitian Paradise the Setting of a Fun-Filled Evening

On the evening of prom, excitement mounts as you climb the luxurious stairway at the Convention Center, present your invitation and then enter into a Tahitian paradise. Strangers become friends as the evening progresses. The climax of the evening is the crowning of the prom queen. This year Kathleen Jansing was crowned queen and Darlene Henkelman and Dianne Neckar were her attendants. After the crowning, the evening proceeds once again until before you know it is the last dance and time to go home. Everyone drifts away tired, but enchanted by a perfect, paradise Prom.

Graduation is Just the Beginning

The band starts to play "Pomp and Circumstance" and the graduates march up the aisle for Honors Night. On this night awards are given to the deserving graduates followed by handshakes, clapping, and smiles. Yet, the biggest and best day is the actual graduation when the seniors receive their diplomas. And then, for the last time, the graduates march out in their robes and caps, clutching onto their diplomas as if they would never let go of the memories of their high school years.

Rum, Vodka, Gin and more;
We're the class of "74".
At our parties, we have fun;
We share our drinks with everyone.
Parties at Katie's are a real blast;
No one leaves without a glass.
We're real sportsmen, and we love to play;
If you can remember, we won field day.

As we crept into the darkness, looking for snipes;
We found the Senior boys, does that sound right?
All in all, we're a great clan;
And if you don't like us, tough—man!

EDITORS' LETTER

As one goes through four years of high school, there is a variety of subjects a student may take; but one of the most important lessons learned in high school is the value of friendship. Friendship begins or is strengthened as one participates in school activities. It is a pleasant surprise to learn more about a person through homecoming committees, student council campaigns, Christmas concerts, spring concerts, sports activities, school organizations, and finally—studies (which includes bookkeeping practice sets).

In each of these school happenings, one has the opportunity to meet people and make friends. So, as editors of the nineteen hundred seventy-three Chi-Rhoan, we take this opportunity to thank our moderator, Sister Barbara Jean, for keeping us on our toes, and our staff friends for working with us to make this yearbook possible. But a special thanks should be extended to all of our friends who sold patrons and those who bought patrons to help finance this yearbook.

Yes, one really gets to know his friends, but sometimes four years does not seem long enough.
